

Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This Statement of Privacy applies to www.manhattanintegrativegi.com and Manhattan Integrative Gastroenterology PC and governs data collection and usage. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, unless otherwise noted, all references to Manhattan Integrative Gastroenterology PC include www.manhattanintegrativegi.com and MIG. The MIG website is a Health education and Medical Practice contact site. By using the MIG website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

In order to better provide you with products and services offered on our Site, MIG may collect personally identifiable information, such as your: name, phone number, email and address. MIG may also collect anonymous demographic information, which is not unique to you, such as your: Age and gender. We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain products or services available on the Site. These may include: (a) registering for an account on our Site; (b) entering a sweepstakes or contest sponsored by us or one of our partners; (c) signing up for special offers from selected third parties; (d) sending us an email message; (e) submitting your credit card or other payment information when ordering and purchasing products and services on our Site. We may use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services and/or products you have requested from us. We also may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Use of your Personal Information

MIG collects and uses your personal information to operate its website(s) and deliver the services you have requested.

MIG may also use your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from MIG and its affiliates.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

MIG does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

MIG may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to MIG, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information. MIG may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on MIG or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of MIG; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of MIG, or the public.

Tracking User Behavior

MIG may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within MIG, in order to determine what MIG services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within MIG to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

We may use cookies and google analytics and similar tracking technologies to track the activity on our Service and hold certain information.

Cookies are files with small amount of data which may include an anonymous unique identifier.

Cookies are sent to your browser from a website and stored on your device. Tracking technologies also used are beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze our Service. You can instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our Service.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by MIG. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the MIG website.

Use of Cookies

The MIG website may use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you. One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize MIG pages, or register with MIG site or services, a cookie helps MIG to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same MIG website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the MIG features that you customized. You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the MIG services or websites you visit.

Links

This website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information.

Children Under Thirteen

MIG does not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under the age of thirteen. If you are under the age of thirteen, you must ask your parent or guardian for permission to use this website.

E-mail Communications

From time to time, MIG may contact you via email for the purpose of providing announcements, promotional offers, alerts, confirmations, surveys, and/or other general communication. If you would like to stop receiving marketing or promotional communications via email from MIG, you may opt out of such communications by clicking on the UNSUBSCRIBE button.

Changes to this Statement

MIG reserves the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you about significant changes in the way we treat personal information by sending a notice to the primary email address specified in your account, by placing a prominent notice on our site, and/or by updating any privacy information on this page. Your continued use of the Site and/or Services available through this Site after such modifications will constitute your: (a) acknowledgment of the modified Privacy Policy; and (b) agreement to abide and be bound by that Policy.
